1 (Case called)

2 MR. THOMAS: Good morning, your Honor. Andrew Thomas
3 on behalf of the United States.

4 THE COURT: Good morning.

5 MR. PAUL: For Ms. Maharaj, Michael Paul. Good
6 morning.

7 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Paul.

8 Good morning to you, Ms. Maharaj.

9 Mr. Thomas, what are we doing?

10 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, I'm informed by counsel to 11 Ms. Maharaj that she wishes to change her plea to guilty.

12 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Paul.

13 MR. PAUL: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Is that what we're doing today?

15 MR. PAUL: That is what we are doing, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, your attorney has informed me
17 that you wish to change your previously entered plea of not 18 guilty to the charges in the indictment and enter a plea of 19 guilty to an information to be filed. I'm happy to take your
20 guilty plea, but before I do that, I need to ask you a series
21 of questions.

22 Before I can take your guilty plea, I need to assure
23 myself that you understand what is going on here today and the 24 consequences of entering a plea, and I also need to make sure
25 that you are actually guilty of the crime to which you wish to

1 plead guilty.

2 In asking these questions it's very important that you
3 be absolutely truthful, so I'm going to have you placed under 4 oath.

5 (Defendant sworn)

6 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, you are now under oath. Do
7 you understand that if you answer any of my questions falsely,
8 your answers could be used against you in a prosecution for 9 perjury or for making a false statement? Do you understand
10 that?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: I want to start off by just asking you
13 some background questions, so please tell me, what is your full 14 name?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Christine Maharaj.

16 THE COURT: How old are you?

17 THE DEFENDANT: 30.

18 THE COURT: How far did you get in school?

19 THE DEFENDANT: High school.

20 THE COURT: Are you able to read and write in English?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Are you now or have you recently been
23 under the care of a doctor or psychiatrist?

24 THE DEFENDANT: No.

25 THE COURT: Have you ever been treated or hospitalized

1 for any mental illness or any type of addiction, including drug
2 or alcohol addiction?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No.

4 THE COURT: In the past 24 hours, have you taken any
5 drugs, medicine, or pills, or have you consumed any alcohol?

6 THE DEFENDANT: No.

7 THE COURT: Is your mind clear today?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, are you feeling well enough
10 to proceed and to understand what is going on here today?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Paul has informed me that you wish to 13 waive indictment and enter a plea of guilty; is that correct?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Ma'am, have you had a full opportunity to 16 discuss your case with Mr. Paul, including any possible
17 defenses you might have?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Have you had a full opportunity to discuss
20 with Mr. Paul the consequences of entering a plea of guilty?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with Mr. Paul and his 23 representation of you?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Does either counsel have any doubt as to

1 the defendant's competence to waive indictment and enter a plea
2 of guilty?

3 MR. THOMAS: No, your Honor.

4 MR. PAUL: No, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Very well. On the basis of Ms. Maharaj's
6 answers to my questions and my observations of her demeanor, I
7 find that she is fully competent to waive indictment and
8 entered an informed guilty plea at this time.

9 The first thing we need to do, Ms. Maharaj, is the 10 waiver of indictment. First of all, have you received a copy
11 of the information that the government proposes to file?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Have you discussed that information with 14 your attorney?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand that this document is 17 called a felony information?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Do you understand that the information was 20 issued by the United States Attorney in this particular case?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, because the charge contained
23 in the information is a serious charge -- indeed, it is a
24 felony -- you have a constitutional right to require the 25 government to present evidence to a grand jury to see whether

1 the grand jury would vote to charge you with that crime. Do
2 you understand that?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Do you understand that a grand jury is
5 composed of a group of at least 16, but not more than 23,
6 citizens, and that at least 12 of them would have to agree that
7 there was probable cause to believe that a crime was committed
8 and that you committed it before you could be indicted? Do you
9 understand that?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Ma'am, if the grand jury voted to charge
12 you, the document they issue would be called an indictment, and 13 it would be signed by the foreperson of the grand jury, as well
14 as the United States Attorney. Do you understand?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Miss, do you wish to give up your right to 17 have your case presented to the grand jury?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Did you discuss that decision thoroughly
20 with your lawyer?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: I've been provided with a document which 23 is a waiver of indictment which I will hold up. Can you see
24 the document from where you are seated?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Is that your signature on this document?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.

3 THE COURT: When you signed it, did you sign it
4 voluntarily?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Before you signed it, did you discuss it
7 with your attorney?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did.

9 THE COURT: Very well. The waiver of indictment will
10 be marked as Court Exhibit 1.

11 Ms. Maharaj, when you signed this document, did you
12 understand that you were acknowledging your willingness to give 13 up your right to be indicted by a grand jury?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Did anyone threaten you or force you to 16 give up that right?

17 THE DEFENDANT: No.

18 THE COURT: Very well. I find that Ms. Maharaj has 19 knowingly and voluntarily waived her right to be indicted by a
20 grand jury, and the information will be accepted for filing.

21 Mr. Paul, did you wish me to read the information
22 aloud?

23 MR. PAUL: No, your Honor, that's not necessary.

24 THE COURT: Very well. Ms. Maharaj, do you understand
25 that you are charged in this one-count information with

1 conspiracy to commit bank fraud?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: What I want to do now is to discuss or to 4 go over with you some of the rights, including constitutional
5 rights, that you are giving up by pleading guilty. Again,
6 please listen very carefully. If I ask you any question that
7 you don't understand, please let me know and I'll rephrase it,
8 or if you want to speak with your attorney before answering the 9 question, just let me know and I'll give you the opportunity to 10 discuss it with Mr. Paul. Okay?

11 First, you have a right to be represented by an
12 attorney at trial and at every other stage of the proceeding.
13 If you could not afford an attorney, an attorney would be
14 appointed to represent you without cost to you. Do you
15 understand that?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: You have a right to a speedy and public
18 trial by a jury on the charges against you which are contained
19 in the information. Do you understand that?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: At trial, you would be presumed innocent,
22 and the government would be required to prove you guilty by 23 competent evidence beyond a reasonable doubt before you could 24 be found guilty. You would not have to prove that you were 25 innocent at trial. Do you understand?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

2 THE COURT: If there were a jury trial, the jury would
3 be composed of 12 people selected from this district, and all
4 12 would have to agree unanimously that you were guilty before
5 you could be found guilty. Do you understand?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

7 THE COURT: At trial, you would have a right to see
8 and hear all of the witnesses against you, and your attorney
9 could cross examine them. Your attorney could object to the 10 government's evidence and offer evidence on your behalf. You
11 would also have the right to have subpoenas issued to compel
12 witnesses to come to court to testify in your defense. Do you
13 understand?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: At trial, you would have the right to 16 testify if you wanted to, but no one could force you to 17 testify. If you chose not to testify, I would instruct the 18 jury that it could not hold that against you. Do you
19 understand?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: If you were convicted at trial, you would 22 have a right to appeal that verdict. Do you understand?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: Do you also understand that by entering a
25 plea of guilty here today, you are giving up all of the rights

1 that I have just described, except for your right to counsel,
2 and you will be found guilty based solely on your plea of
3 guilty?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, do you understand that you
6 could change your mind right now for any reason and decide not
7 to enter a plea of guilty?

8 THE DEFENDANT: I'm sorry. Repeat that?

9 THE COURT: Do you understand that you can change your 10 mind right now for any reason and decide not to enter a plea of 11 guilty?

12 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

13 THE COURT: The next series of questions that I want
14 to go over with you concern the charges against you.

15 As I previously mentioned, you are charged in Count
16 One of the information, in the one-count information, with
17 conspiracy to commit bank fraud.

18 Mr. Thomas, would you be describe what the elements of 19 that charge are?

20 MR. THOMAS: Yes, your Honor. In order to satisfy its 21 burden of proof at trial, the government would have had to 22 establish each of the following four essential elements beyond
23 a reasonable doubt:

24 First, that two or more persons entered the unlawful
25 agreement charged in Count One of the information; second, that

1 the defendant knowingly and willfully became a member of the
2 conspiracy; third, that one of the members of the conspiracy
3 knowingly committed at least one of the overt acts charged in 4 the information; and fourth, that the overt act which, if the 5 jury were to find committed, was committed to further some 6 object of the conspiracy.

7 The object in this case charged in Count One is bank
8 fraud, which is a violation of Title 18 United States Code,
9 Section 1344, which itself has the following elements:

10 First, that there was a scheme to defraud a bank;
11 second, that the defendant executed or attempted to execute the 12 scheme with the intent to defraud the bank; and third, that at 13 the time of the execution of the scheme, the bank had its 14 deposits insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

15 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Thomas.

16 Ms. Maharaj, did you hear what the prosecutor just 17 said?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Miss, do you understand that if you did
20 not plead guilty to the one-count information, that the 21 government would have to prove each and every one of those 22 elements of that charge beyond a reasonable doubt at trial?

23 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

24 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, have you discussed with 25 Mr. Paul the possible punishment that you face by pleading

1 guilty to this charge?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Do you understand that this charge, 18
4 United States Code, Section 371, carries a maximum term of 5 imprisonment of five years?

6 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

7 THE COURT: Do you also understand that there is a
8 maximum term of supervised release of three years that I could 9 impose?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: In addition to those types of punishment,
12 there are also financial punishments, including a $100 special
13 assessment that I must impose. Do you understand that?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: In addition, there is a fine that I could 16 impose, which could be as high as either $250,000, or twice the 17 gross gain from the offense, or twice the gross loss to victims
18 of the offense. Do you understand that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20 THE COURT: I mentioned the term "supervised release".
21 Do you understand that if you are sentenced to supervised
22 release, there are terms and conditions with which you must 23 comply when you are released from prison?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Understood.

25 THE COURT: And if you do not comply with them, you

1 could be returned to prison without a jury trial. Do you
2 understand that?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you violate the 5 terms or conditions of supervised release and are returned to 6 prison, that new term could be for part or all of the period of 7 supervised release, and that you will not receive credit for 8 any time previously served in prison on this offense or any 9 time previously served on supervised release?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Do you understand that as part of your
12 sentence, I could also order restitution to any person injured
13 as a result of your criminal conduct?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, do you further understand, if 16 I accept your guilty plea and find you guilty, that 17 determination may deprive you of certain valuable civil rights,
18 such as the right to vote, the right to hold public office, the 19 right to serve on a jury, the right to possess any kind of 20 firearm, and the right to hold certain professional licenses?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, are you an American citizen?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

24 THE COURT: The next series of questions we need to go
25 over involve the sentencing guidelines. First of all,

1 Ms. Maharaj, do you understand that there are sentencing
2 guidelines that I must consider in determining the appropriate
3 sentence in your case?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Have you spoken with Mr. Paul about how
6 the guidelines apply to your case?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Miss, do you understand that I have to 9 calculate a guideline range, and then I have to consider that 10 range in determining what your sentence will be?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Do you also understand that I will not be
13 able to make that calculation until after a presentence report
14 has been completed by the U.S. Probation Department and both
15 you and the government have had an opportunity to review a
16 draft of that report?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Do you further understand that even after 19 I make the calculation of the guidelines, I have the ability to 20 impose a sentence that is either higher or lower than what the 21 guidelines recommend?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, do you also understand that 24 in addition to the guidelines, there is also a law that 25 requires me to consider a number of other items, including

1 factors such as your history and characteristics and about the
2 offense that you have allegedly committed in determining the 3 appropriate sentence in your case? Do you understand that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: So even after I determine the guidelines,
6 I must also consider these other factors, and again, might
7 settle on a sentence that is either higher or lower than what
8 the guidelines recommend. Do you understand that?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, do you understand that if 11 your attorney or anyone else has attempted to estimate or 12 predict what your sentence will be, their estimate or 13 prediction could be wrong?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: While it is perfectly appropriate for you
16 and Mr. Paul to have discussed how the sentence will be 17 calculated, no one can give you any assurance of what your 18 sentence will be. Do you understand that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, I say all of this to you
21 because you need to understand today that if your sentence is 22 different from what your attorney or anyone else told you it
23 might be, or if it is different from what you expect or even if 24 it is different from what is contained in your plea agreement
25 with the government, you will still be bound by your guilty

1 plea and you will not be able to withdraw your guilty plea. Do
2 you understand that?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you are sent to 5 prison, there is no parole in the federal system, and you will
6 not be released early on parole? Do you understand?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: The next series of questions, Ms. Maharaj,
9 concern your agreement with the government. I have been
10 provided with a document. It is six pages long. It is dated 11 October 28, 2016. On the sixth page there are a series of 12 signatures, including one which purports to be yours with 13 today's date. I'm holding up page 6. Can you see that 14 document from where you are seated?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Is that your signature on this page?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.

18 THE COURT: Very well. This document will be marked
19 Court Exhibit 2.

20 Ms. Maharaj, did you read this agreement before you
21 signed it?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Did you discuss it with Mr. Paul before
24 you signed it?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Did you fully understand the agreement
2 when you signed it?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Does this agreement include your
5 understanding of the entire agreement between the government
6 and you?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, is there any other agreement
9 or any other promise about your plea or your sentence that is 10 not contained in this agreement?

11 THE DEFENDANT: No.

12 THE COURT: Has anyone threatened you or forced you to 13 enter into the plea agreement?

14 THE DEFENDANT: No.

15 THE COURT: Other than what is in the plea agreement,
16 has anyone promised you anything or offered you anything either
17 to plead guilty or to enter into the plea agreement?

18 THE DEFENDANT: No.

19 THE COURT: Has anyone made a promise to you as to 20 what your sentence will be?

21 THE DEFENDANT: No.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand that there is a
23 stipulation in the agreement regarding the sentencing
24 guidelines, and that that stipulation binds you and it binds
25 the government, but it does not bind me, and I'm still going to

1 make my own determination as to your guidelines range. Do you
2 understand that?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Do you understand that under certain
5 circumstances, both you and the government have a right to
6 appeal any sentence that I might impose, subject to the terms
7 of the plea agreement. Do you understand?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: However, in this plea agreement, there is
10 a stipulated sentencing range which provides that, if I
11 sentence you within or below that range, your appellate rights
12 are essentially very constricted. Do you understand that?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Thomas, would the government please
15 summarize what it would expect to prove if this case were to 16 proceed to trial?

17 MR. THOMAS: Yes, your Honor. Were the case to 18 proceed to trial, the government would demonstrate that 19 Ms. Maharaj was a loan processor for an entity that went by a
20 number of names, including Launch Development and Homeowners
21 Assistance Services of New York. In that role, Ms. Maharaj
22 transmitted documents to banks for the purpose of having those
23 banks approve short sales, and the documents that Ms. Maharaj
24 transmitted on a number of occasions included forged homeowner
25 signatures or other doctored pieces of information.

1 The government would substantiate those allegations
2 with proof of homeowners who would testify that, in fact, they
3 did not sign the documents, bank representatives who will
4 testify they, in fact, received the documents and relied on
5 them in processing the short sale loans, and digital evidence,
6 including a file which contained what appear to be digital
7 copies of homeowners' signatures which were then reproduced on 8 a series of documents.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 Ms. Maharaj, did you hear what the prosecutor said?

11 THE DEFENDANT: I did.

12 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, have you clearly understood
13 everything that has happened here today so far?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Can you please tell me in your own words
16 what it was that you did that you believe makes you guilty of 17 the crime to which you are pleading guilty.

18 THE DEFENDANT: I did do, along with -- I basically
19 just followed instructions, and I didn't object to the things
20 that he said that I did.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

22 THE DEFENDANT: I didn't object to anything. So I
23 just followed instructions as working there, and yes, I
24 shouldn't have done it. As far as the signatures, I just went 25 along. It was me and my entire team, and I didn't object to

1 it, and I just, you know, did my job as I was told to do.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So as I understand it, you and
3 others with whom you were working submitted documents to banks
4 that contained fraudulent signatures, correct?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Well, we copied -- some of them were 6 copied, and then some of the documents were blank, so we had to 7 fill out the information as far as fill in the names, fill in
8 the information on blank documents --

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 THE DEFENDANT: -- to submit it. So, I mean, they 11 weren't completed by the homeowners fully, we transferred some 12 of the information over, but everything that we had did have
13 some type of a signature initially, and then it was just copied
14 or reproduced.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So you took digital copies of 16 actual signatures and placed them on documents that the 17 homeowners did not actually sign?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, I guess so. Right? Because 19 they were copied. I mean, you know, they were copied. They 20 were initially signed initially blank, and then if we needed to 21 make changes -- so we did. We did use the signatures on some 22 of the documents that they didn't see, yes.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And that was done without the 24 knowledge or authorization of the --

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

1 THE COURT: -- homeowners?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Of the homeowners, yes.

3 THE COURT: And when you did that, where were you when 4 you did that?

5 THE DEFENDANT: At the office.

6 THE COURT: Where is the office?

7 THE DEFENDANT: 189-10 Hillside.

8 THE COURT: What county is that in?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Queens.

10 THE COURT: Some of the documents that you submitted,
11 were they submitted to banks or financial institutions that
12 were in Manhattan or in the Bronx?

13 THE DEFENDANT: I'm not sure. I'm not sure where the 14 companies were located. They were faxed in.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Thomas, is there a representation as 16 to venue?

17 MR. THOMAS: Yes, your Honor, on two fronts. First,
18 some of the financial institutions, in fact, are located in the 19 Southern District of New York, and also, one of Ms. Maharaj's
20 coconspirators resided in the Southern District of New York and 21 committed a number of acts in furtherance of the conspiracy in 22 Manhattan.

23 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, when, approximately, did you
24 engage in that activity?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Maybe January to May, 2015. '15 or

1 '14. '14, I believe it is.

2 THE COURT: Then when you did that, when you submitted
3 those documents without the authorization or the knowledge of
4 the homeowners, did you know that what you were doing was wrong
5 and against the law?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, did anyone threaten you or 8 coerce you or force you to do those things?

9 THE DEFENDANT: I was not threatened, per se, but, I
10 mean, I was working for a company, and basically, I was the 11 only support of my family, and it was something I had to do in 12 order to move forward or to live, basically.

13 THE COURT: Okay. But you knowingly and willfully did
14 this?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I guess.

16 THE COURT: But you weren't forced to do it. In other
17 words, you could have made a decision if you wanted to to do
18 something else.

19 THE DEFENDANT: Correct. I mean, I did quit in the 20 end, though. You know. After they kept forcing me to do more
21 things, I just -- basically, I left the job --

22 THE COURT: You used --

23 THE DEFENDANT: -- on my own.

24 THE COURT: You used the word "they forced you to do
25 some more things". Again, because understand, if you were

1 forced, if you weren't able to overcome their directions to
2 you, if you personally could not say no and walk out, then
3 you're not guilty of a crime. You understand that.

4 THE DEFENDANT: I mean, I could have walked out, I
5 could have said no and walked out. In the end, I could have,
6 but I did not.

7 THE COURT: So you weren't threatened and you weren't
8 coerced to do this.

9 THE DEFENDANT: No, I was just -- it was just 10 pressure.

11 THE COURT: Does either counsel wish me to make any 12 further inquiries?

13 MR. THOMAS: One matter, your Honor. I invite the 14 Court to ask the defendant whether or not the purpose of the 15 documents being transmitted to the banks was in order to induce 16 the banks to approve short sales.

17 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, when you were submitting
18 these documents to the bank, was the purpose to induce the 19 banks to authorize the short sales or to loan proceeds for 20 short sales?

21 THE DEFENDANT: To process the short sales, yes. If 22 they actually taken it or not, that was not under my control.
23 I was just obligated to submit the documents, and however they 24 process it, they process it. If it came with an approval or 25 denial, I had no control over that.

1 THE COURT: That was a decision that was made by the
2 banks?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, correct. I was just obligated to 4 send them the documents, that's it.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Thomas?

6 MR. THOMAS: Nothing further, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Paul?

8 MR. PAUL: No, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Very well.

10 Mr. Paul, do you know of any valid legal defense that 11 would prevail at trial or any reason why your client should not 12 be permitted to plead guilty?

13 MR. PAUL: I do not, your Honor. But I do want to 14 reiterate what my client did place on the record, that after a
15 while, she felt too much pressure, and that's why she resigned
16 from the position, and she voluntarily left the employ of this
17 organization.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Paul, do you believe that there's an
19 adequate factual basis to support the plea?

20 MR. PAUL: I do.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Thomas, do you believe that there's an
22 adequate factual basis to support the plea?

23 MR. THOMAS: I do, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Ms. Maharaj, how do you now plead to the 25 charge in Count One of the information; guilty or not guilty?

1 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

2 THE COURT: Miss, are you in fact guilty of that
3 charge?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty voluntarily and of 6 your own free will?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8 THE COURT: There's also a forfeiture allegation in
9 the information. Do you admit the forfeiture allegation; yes
10 or no?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Very well. Because you acknowledge that 13 you are in fact guilty as charged in the one-count information,
14 because I find that you know your rights and are waiving them
15 knowingly and voluntarily with an understanding of the 16 consequences of your plea, including the potential sentences
17 that may be imposed, and because I find that your plea is
18 supported by an independent factual basis, I accept your plea
19 and find you guilty as charged in the one-count information.

20 Ms. Maharaj, I will now direct that a presentence
21 investigation be conducted by the U.S. Probation Office and 22 that a presentence report be prepared. You will be interviewed
23 as part of that process. You can and should have your lawyer
24 with you during your interview. The presentence report is 25 going to be a very important part of my decision as to what

1 your sentence will be, so when you receive a draft, its very
2 important that you go over it very carefully and discuss it
3 very carefully with Mr. Paul and let me know if you find any 4 discrepancies or mistakes. You will also have the right, as 5 will Mr. Paul, to speak on your own behalf before I impose
6 sentence.

7 Do we have a date for sentence?

8 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes. April 5, 2017 at 11:30 a.m.

9 THE COURT: What is Ms. Maharaj's bail status?

10 MR. THOMAS: She's on release, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: No objection to continuing the current 12 conditions?

13 MR. THOMAS: No objection from the government.

14 THE COURT: Very well.

15 Ms. Maharaj, you will remain under the conditions that 16 you are currently under.

17 Just so the parties are aware, I'm handing to 18 Ms. Rivera for the government Court Exhibit 1 and 2, the 19 consent preliminary order of forfeiture, which I have so
20 ordered, and the information.

21 Is there anything else that we need to do today,
22 Mr. Thomas?

23 MR. THOMAS: Nothing further from the government, your 24 Honor.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Paul?

1 MR. PAUL: Nothing further from the defense, your
2 Honor. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: In that event, we are adjourned. We will 4 see you in a few months.
